Description :

PDF-c592c | Did Sammy Clemens sell his soul for Fame? In 1866 a young Mark Twain went on his first international trip, crossing Central America through Nicaragua on a popular route used by 49ers and others before the Panama Canal construction. His real-life travelogues included a mysterious companion named Mr. Brown. But what Clemens didn't describe was Brown's satanic purpose in taking them on a journey back ... Mark Twain & The River of Timeless Temptation
